Search Warrant Nets Six Arrests

The Walton County Sheriff's Office, in conjunction with the State Attorney's Office, has compiled information stemming from a lengthy investigation beginning in October 2013. Through this investigation, multiple subjects have been identified as being involved in the manufacture of methamphetamine, distribution of controlled substances including pharmaceutical medications and conspiracy to manufacture methamphetamine by providing precursor or listed chemicals necessary to produce the drug.

On June 16, 2014, four search warrants were prepared and executed by members of the Walton County Sheriff's Office in conjunction with this case. Of these four search warrants, in DeFuniak Springs, the following individuals were arrested;

Mr. Leonard (Lenny) Platteborze, 61, 366 Paradise Island Dr Lot D2

Ms. Erica Nowling, 34, 366 Paradise Island Dr Lot D2

Mr. Charles Alford, 45, 108 Jim Cotton Dr

Mr. Tony Rhodes, 35, 515 West Cypress Ave

Ms. Kaylee Schipper, 21, 108 Jim Cotton Dr

Ms. Tracey Burgess, 49, 347 McHenry Rd, Ponce De Leon

This investigation is still on-going and more information will be released as it comes available.

A press conference will take place tomorrow at the Walton County Sheriff's Office, located at 752 Triple G Road, DeFuniak Springs, at 2 p.m.
